

For Immediate Release

Contact: Gary James
American Security Council Foundation
Phone: 772-388-2490
E-Mail: press@ascfusa.org

February 9, 2014

On March 29th, 2014 the American Security Council Foundation will host their annual Golf Tournament at Bent Pine Golf Club in Vero Beach, Florida.

Registration and lunch will begin at 12:00 pm with a shotgun start at 1:30 pm. The entry fee for the tournament is $150.00 per player and includes 18 holes of golf with cart on the beautiful Joe Lee designed course. An awards ceremony and cocktail hour will immediately follow the tournament.

The tournament will also include a men's and women's longest drive and closest to the pin. Linus Cadillac has generously donated a 2014 Buick Verano as the top prize for the Hole In One Challenge.

Proceeds from this year's event will provide scholarships for students of Indian River County whose parents are active duty military, veterans, law enforcement, and first responders and also to promote the ASCF campaign Step Up America: A Call To Good Citizenship.

The Role of the American Security Council Foundation is to educate and inform Americans about the global challenges to National Security, Economic Security, Diplomatic Security and the Moral Leadership for the United States of America. For more information regarding the American Security Council Foundation and our mission please visit us at www.ascfusa.org

The American Security Council Foundation (ASCF) is a non-partisan, non-profit 501 (c) (3) tax-exempt organization established in 1958. Promoting "Peace through Strength®"

The ASCF is actively looking for sponsors, players and raffle items for this annual tournament. If you are interested in playing, becoming a sponsor, or require additional information, please contact Kim Kern at 772-360-9294.