The American Security Council Foundation hosted their first “Veterans Appreciation Golf Tournament” at Grand Harbor in Vero Beach, Florida. The tournament was well attended and a good time was had by all. The proceeds from the tournament will be presented to the Indian River Veterans Council to help purchase a new bus that will be used to transport veterans from the Indian River/Brevard County area to the Veterans Hospital in West Palm Beach.

The event began with the invocation being given by ASCF Director Mr. Robert D. Johnson followed by the pledge of allegiance while the colors were presented by the Indian River County Sheriff’s Office Color Guard. Dr. Henry A. Fischer the ASCF President/CEO gave a brief opening statement and the teams took to the Pete Dye designed Harbor Course.

Afterwards the attendees enjoyed a fully catered lunch at the Grand Harbor Club House while the scores were tallied. Once the winners were determined, ASCF Director Hon. David C. Nolte announced the names and gave out prizes for 1st thru 3rd places as well as 2 ea. Closest to the Pin and Longest Drive Contests.

The ASCF wishes to thank the tournament sponsors whose support made this a truly great event:
